AGREED PROTECTIVE ORDER

Pursuant to the agreement of the parties, the Court enters the following Order regarding production of documents or information by the parties:

1. Counsel for either party may mark, stamp or otherwise designate documents or information to be produced as “Confidential”. These designations are to be made in good faith. It is envisioned that the types of documents or information to be designated as “Confidential” will include things such as Defendant’s personnel information, information regarding company investigations, proprietary information, trade secrets, competitively valuable commercial information, and information produced by Plaintiff regarding himself which is personal or private.

2. Unless otherwise agreed by the designating party, or ordered by the Court, the other party and his/its counsel, or individuals retained by or working with them, shall not disclose documents or information designated as “Confidential”, and shall not use the documents or information for any purpose other than in connection with the instant litigation.

3. If requested by the producing party within 30 days of the conclusion of this litigation, the other party shall return all produced documents designated as “Confidential” and copies thereof. Absent a request by the producing party within 30 days of the conclusion of this litigation, the other party shall destroy all such documents and copies thereof,

4. This Order does not prohibit either party from filing motions or other Court documents which include documents or information designated by the other party as “Confidential.” However, the party intending to file such documents or information will notify opposing counsel at least five working days before such filing, to permit the other party to seek agreed or Court-ordered protection by filing under seal or otherwise.

It is so ORDERED.
